Plan Now to Attend!

Torsten Schimanski will talk about LinkedIn and focus on participants wondering what to do with LinkedIn. He will discuss the idea of networking, settings, and strategies of how to utilize the business networking tool.

Torsten runs his own seven-year-old Westchester based business called Financetainment Consulting. He works with individual clients and companies providing executive and sales coaching and business consulting. He also specializes in learning and development and has over 20 years experience in this field. He uses LinkedIn to meet new prospects and to grow his business.

Torsten is a heavy user and expert in the use of LinkedIn, a very popular social networking product. He is a L.I.O.N. (Linked In Open Networker), which is a designation used by several user-created groups to indicate a high level of interconnectivity to other LinkedIn members.

Hope to see you all there.
